Best Student of the year 2014 - 15

Among many students Mr. Syed Muqadas Hussaini Inamdar emerged as scholar. He, having all scholastic features nourished, got tuned to the best student of the year. When watched through any angle he is found to be perfect with perfections. William Shakespeare rightly called King Lear - an inch inch a king, likewise he deserves to be called an inch inch a scholar as he is brimmed with many features. He presented his skills in games, in studies, in educational competitions and maintained a winning spree. He is noble natured, mild behaved, soft spoken, he spend most of his time in studies yet in leisure hours he never forgets to maintain social relations with others. Teachers are proud of him for his intelligence and his behaviour. Management and teachers feel pride and students feel proud to brand him as the best student of the year 2014-15 which he deservedly deserves.

We pray God to bless him with zeal to maintain this scholastic features through out his life. He has the cherished desire of becoming a doctor. So let us all pray God to bless him with this achievement as a mark of his dedication and struggle.
